

ORGANIZATION & ARRANGEMENT

Collections

The East Asian Library as a research library holds 154,000 volumes of Chinese, Japanese, and Korean (CJK) language materials. English and other language materials about East Asian studies are housed in Wilson Library's general and reference collections.

Classification

The materials in the East Asian Library are organized by the Library of Congress Classification system. This system is adopted by all academic libraries in the United States and Canada.

Size

Within Minnesota Library system, materials are further organized by their sizes, namely Octavo, Quarto, and Folio.

Within each section of these sizes, materials are arranged from A to Z on the shelves. For example, materials on Chinese, Japanese, and Korean arts can be found in Octavo, Quarto, and Folio sections. Be sure to check all relevant sections for needed materials.

Current materials (front area)

- Current periodical issues are on Display Shelves.
- Selected newly cataloged books are on New Book Shelves.
- Newspapers are on Newspaper shelves.
- Film collections are on the Film Shelves.

References

Reference materials, with white tape on the book spine, are shelved in two sections: Dictionary Section and Reference Collection.

Chinese martial arts and Japanese mystery fiction

These two types of fiction, with yellow tape on the book spine, are located on the shelves at the end of the Reference Collection.

Microform

Collections of microfiche and microfilm are shelved at the end of Folio section.
